Ask Any Sickle Smoker Why

he sticks to Sickle plug and slices off each pipeful as he needs it.

Real tobacco flavor depends upon the leaf being preserved in its natural state, possible only by pressing the leaves into plug form and keeping it in by covering it with a natural leaf wrapper. The natural flavor and strength of tobacco escape when cut or granulated.

Take a Plug of Sickle that is even thoroughly dried out so that when you whittle it off it crumbles into dust, but it will burn and smoke smooth and cool as it has all of its original tobacco flavor preserved, unevaporated in Plug Form.

Whittling a pipeful is little trouble, amply repaid in both quality and quantity. Try this experiment and judge for yourself.

Fraud Paint

The worst mistake one is likely to make in painting is wrong paint; it is easy to make.

We all say "Ours is the best"; and there are 1000 of us. One is best; but a dozen are so near on the level that no one knows, for sure, that his is the one.

The worst paints are worst liars; they know what they are, put on a bold face, and brazen it out.

Their one true argument is low price; but low-price paint is always, must be, a fraud; it is made to cheat cheatable people.—adv.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The 41st annual convention of the Vermont W. C. T. U. was held in the beautiful village of Barton, September 8, 9 and 10.

The convention opened at 7:30 at the Methodist church parlors with an informal reception of State officers, including the county president standing in the receiving line. A large number of delegates and friends were present. Following the reception an address was given by Miss Anna A. Gordon, president of the National W. C. T. U. This address was very helpful. After the address the Barton ladies served ice cream and wafers.

Thursday, the 9th, was given up to reports from superintendent of department and various other things which were helpful, closing with a medal contest in the evening in which there were six contestants, three young men and three young ladies. The silver medal, with a special prize of $5, was presented in behalf of the State W. C. T. U. by Miss Anna Gordon to Lee Emerson; second, special prize $2.50, to Ruby Calkins. Her subject was "Saved." The other subject was "National Prohibition, the Hope of Our Country." The remaining four were each given a box of stationery so that all were well pleased and satisfied.

Friday morning, after the devotional meeting led by Mrs. Amanda D. Seaver, the convention continued through the day, following the program very closely. At 11 o'clock came the election of officers, with the following elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Minnie L. Pearson, Orleans; corresponding secretary, Elsie L. Pease, Swanton; recording secretary, Mrs. Ellen B. Turner, St. Johnsbury; treasurer, Miss L. Grace Prior, Morrisville; auditor, Mrs. Inez Stewart, Morrisville; editor "Vermont Home Guards" Mrs. Clara E. Smith, Wells River; chairman resolution committee, Mrs. Clara E. Smith, Wells River; musical director, Elsie L. Pease, Swanton. Twelve young campaigners enlivened the convention with their rally cry and songs.

Friday evening opened with a band concert given in honor of the State convention. Following the concert addresses were given upon the question of National Prohibition by the Hon. Porter H. Dale of Island Pond, Hon. John Holland, Stanstead, P. Q., and the Rev. W. E. Shaw of Montpelier. These were listened to very closely by upwards of 2,000 people. This was an open-air meeting, Barton not having a hall or church large enough to hold the people.

This closed one of the most successful W. C. T. U. conventions Vermont has ever had, and the delegates went home to work harder in the campaign for State and National Prohibition than ever before.

WILLIAM A. LAWRENCE DEAD.

News has been received in town of the death of William A. Lawrence of Bristol at a sanitarium in Springfield, Mass., Tuesday morning where he had gone for treatment. The cause of death was heart failure. Mr. Lawrence was 59 years of age and had been a resident of Bristol for 34 years. He had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. Lawrence was born in Monkton 59 years ago, and was educated in the common schools of his native town and at Vergennes. He came to Bristol in 1871 and engaged in the sale of wagons, later adding horses and automobiles. In all his business enterprises he was very successful.

He served several terms as deputy sheriff, was for a year president of the Addison County Agricultural society and for years has been a director. Mr. Lawrence represented Bristol in the Legislature of 1900 and was a member of the State Senate in 1904. He was also a director of the National Bank of Middlebury. About 15 years ago he became interested in the village cemetery and was instrumental in getting a law passed incorporating the Bristol Cemetery association. The association took over the cemetery, naming it Greenwood, and today it stands as a monument to the memory of Mr. Lawrence's perseverance and foresight. There, by the side of his first wife, he will be laid at rest.

Mr. Lawrence, in January, 1911, presented the town of Bristol with the building that bears the name "Lawrence Memorial Library." This structure was erected in memory of Mr. Lawrence's wives and presented to the town with the stipulation that it should be maintained as a library. He was a member of Libanus lodge, No. 47, F. & A. M., Gifford chapter, No. 23, of Bristol, and Mt. Calvary commandery, No. 1, K. T., of Middlebury, also Bristol lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Lawrence was twice married. His second wife was burned to death in a railroad wreck at Vergennes on December 1, 1906.
